3. 2018 CSIP and Land Trust

Corrie Barrett

*Writing continues to be a weakness school-wide with 32% of 3rd-5th grade students not reaching proficiency on the 15-16 ELA SAGE. We need to place more of an emphasis on writing as we create our master schedule. Professional development will specifically address strategies for teaching writing as well as how to analyze writing samples.

*Corrie motioned to approve the CSIP for the 2017-18 school year and Sandra Hokanson seconded. Yes=8 No=0 Abstain=1

*We are looking at having 90% of our students reach the national median for Rate of Increase in reading fluency as measured by the Dibels assessment in May 2018

*How do we get there? By taking from Land Trust Fund this will allow us 5 Reading Interventionist (30min. a day / 4 days a week)

*Corrie Barrett made a motion to approve the LAND Trust Plan to fund 5 Reading Interventionist at an estimated cost of $40,500 for the 2017-18 school year. Monica Rotermund seconded

Yes=8 No=0 Abstain=1

*We are looking at taking from Cell Tower funds for 1 Math Interventionist early mornings for reinforcing concepts at a possible rate of $2,000 for the 2017-18 school year

*Hand on Science we look at our next meeting (19 classes @ 85 hrs. total)
